Fishing Capital of Kentucky!

Cumberland River & Dale Hollow Lake Fishing

Cumberland County's fishing holes produce record-breaking fish: Trout in the cold tailwaters of the Cumberland River, small mouth bass in Dale Hollow Lake, striped bass between the two, along with walleye and crappie. Bring your boat (or rent one of ours) and maneuver your way into a fishing adventure. Contact local guides for their expertise.

Dale Hollow Lake State Resort Park & Golf

Ranked among the best in Kentucky, the 18-hole course hugs the southern Kentucky hillsides, beautifully featuring a par 72 course – 7,273 yards of golf. The park also features fifteen miles of trails suited for hiking, horseback riding or mountain biking. Unless otherwise noted, no motorized vehicles allowed.

Fishing!

Why use a fishing guide? These folks have been on the waters of Cumberland County for years and will lend their expertise to make your fishing expedition rewarding and fun. If you aren't familiar with navigating the lower Cumberland River or Dale Hollow Lake, a guide will know where the fish like to hang out, allowing you to concentrate on your mission of not just fishing ... but catching.
